

PERMIAN RESOURCES CORPORATION
CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING, ENVIRONMENTAL,
SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

(As amended on October 28, 2021)

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Permian Resources Corporation (the “Company”) has established the Nominating, Environmental, Social and Governance Committee of the Board (the “Committee”) with the purposes, membership requirements, authority and responsibilities described in this Charter of the Committee (this “Charter”).

I. PURPOSES

The purposes of the Committee are to:

- A. Identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board consistent with criteria approved by the Board and recommend director nominees to the Board for election at the next annual meeting of shareholders or for appointment by the Board to fill any Board vacancy;
- B. Review and make recommendations to the Board on corporate governance matters, including relating to the Company’s governance documents and practices, as well as the performance and composition of the Board and its committees;
- C. Review and monitor the Company’s policies, controls and systems relating to environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) matters, as well as broader ESG trends, and make recommendations to the Board on ESG matters; and
- D. Perform such other functions as are listed in this Charter or as the Board may assign to the Committee from time to time.

II. COMPOSITION

Each member of the Committee shall qualify as an independent director under the standards established by the Nasdaq Capital Market. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a chairperson is designated by the Board, the members of the Committee, by a majority vote, may designate a chairperson. The chairperson must be a member of the Committee.

III. MEETINGS, PROCEDURES, AND AUTHORITY

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s Second Amended and Restated Bylaws (as may be further amended from time to time, the “Bylaws”) that are applicable to the Committee.

The Committee has sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve such search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee has the authority to retain any other advisors that the Committee believes to be desirable and appropriate and has the authority to approve related fees and retention terms.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purpose of the Committee, and the Bylaws.

IV. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall have the following powers and responsibilities:

A. Director Nominations

1. Director Qualifications. The Committee will identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board based on the criteria set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines as well as any other factor that the Committee deems to be relevant. The Committee will ensure that the Board has the requisite expertise and that its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds. The Committee will consider candidates for the Board regardless of gender, race, ethnicity and national origin, and the Committee will instruct any search firm retained by the Committee to assist in a director search process to present a diverse pool of candidates, including women and minority candidates.

2. Director Nominees. The Committee will recommend to the Board the nominees for election to the Board at the next annual meeting of shareholders or for appointment by the Board to fill any Board vacancy and newly created directorships on the Board.

3. Board Composition. The Committee shall review and make recommendations regarding the composition and size of the Board, including directors' terms and tenure.

4. Shareholder Recommendations. The Committee will treat recommendations for directors that are received from the Company's shareholders equally with recommendations received from any other source; provided, however, that in order for such shareholder recommendations to be considered, the recommendations must comply with the procedures outlined in the Company's proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders.

B. Corporate Governance

1. Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Committee will develop and recommend to the Board a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines for the Company, and the Committee will, from time to time as it deems appropriate, review and reassess the adequacy of such Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

2. Board Committee Structure and Membership. The Committee will annually review the Board committee structure and recommend to the Board for its approval directors to serve as members of each committee.

3. Majority Voting. The Committee shall perform the duties described in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines relating to majority election of directors and holdover directors, including recommending to the Board whether to accept or reject a director resignation, or take other action, when a director fails to receive a majority vote in a non-contested election.

4. Lead Independent Director. If the Chairman of the Board is not an independent director, on an annual basis, the Committee will review and recommend to the independent directors of the Board a director who should be elected as the Lead Independent Director.

5. Other Corporate Governance Matters. The Committee may make recommendations to the Board regarding other governance matters and practices, as well as relating to the Company's governance documents, including the Company's Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws and the charters of the Company's other committees.

6. Board and Management Evaluations. The Committee will oversee the annual self-evaluations of the Board and management.

C. ESG Matters

1. ESG Developments. The Committee will monitor and receive reports on ESG laws, regulations, decisions, protocols, trends, risks and other ESG-related developments, which affect or may affect the exploration and production industry generally or the Company's performance, activities and reputation specifically.

2. ESG Reports. The Committee will receive reports from Company management regarding (a) Company performance on ESG matters, including compliance with ESG laws, (b) legal and other proceedings relating to ESG matters and (c) Company strategies and initiatives with respect to ESG matters.

3. ESG Oversight. The Committee will monitor the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's policies, controls and systems for (a) addressing ESG matters, consistent with prudent oil and gas exploration and production industry practices, (b) complying with ESG related laws and (c) achieving the Company's ESG objectives.

4. ESG Recommendations. The Committee will review with, and make recommendations to, the Board and Company management regarding the Company's ESG policies, practices and metrics, as well as the Company's public disclosure on ESG matters.

5. ESG Metrics and Goals. The Committee will review the Company's performance on ESG matters, including progress towards the achievement of ESG metrics and goals, and report on its view of the Company's performance to the Board and its committees.

D. Other Power and Responsibilities

1. Succession Planning. The Committee will oversee plans for succession of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), including identifying the qualities and characteristics necessary for an effective CEO and monitoring and reviewing the development and progression of potential candidates against these standards. The Committee will periodically report to the Board on CEO succession planning and make recommendations for approval by the Board of any CEO succession plans. The Committee will also consult with the CEO on senior management succession planning.

2. Director Orientation and Education. The Committee will oversee and evaluate the orientation and continuing education program for directors and make recommendations to the Board where appropriate.

3. Shareholder Proposals. The Committee will review shareholder proposals that relate to director nominees, corporate governance and ESG matters and recommend to the Board any actions to be taken or statements to be released in response.

4. Reports to the Board. The Committee must report regularly to the Board regarding the activities of the Committee.

5. Committee Self-Evaluation. The Committee must at least annually perform an evaluation of the performance of the Committee.

6. Review of this Charter. The Committee must periodically review and reassess this Charter and submit any recommended changes to the Board for its consideration.

V. DELEGATION OF DUTIES

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee has the authority to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.
